MP 8 (4Ab)

1. Chapman & Ireland's Ellemich Firefly.
Small compact Blenheim with rich colouring. Feminine head shape with lovely eyes and good pigmentation. Neat body shape with good bone and substance, moved well in profile keeping a good topline and tail carriage, presented and handled well.
BPB
2. Koster-Tindall's Harana Hopelessly Devoted.
Blenheim more heavily marked than 1, has a decent head shape, with large dark eyes, well placed ears, neat outline, with good front and nice neck, keeping a good top line on the move, not quite as mature in body as the winner, but overall a nice type.
3. Loades Brymarden Primrose Rosirius
4. Conneally's Coedgwylum Greta

P 11(2Ab)

1. Jaramillo's Conabec Lady Madonna
Nice type well marked Blenheim, liked her size and presented a balanced outline standing, pretty head and eye, soft gentle expression, just needs to settle a little in her top line when moving, but overall a lovely puppy.
2. Gibson's Toraylac Honolulu
Close up to one, lovely type well marked, pretty in head and eye with a soft gentle expression, in good coat and condition. Moves well in both directions and has a super attitude, presented well.

J 9. (1Ab)

1. Fox-Shone's Pamedna Sasha Rose
Ruby who excels in a super outline, so well made in body, with good neck shoulders and good turn of stifle, looks a picture standing, pleasing in head and eye. Carries herself well on the move with a level top line, coat of good colour and texture. Lovely bitch.
2. Spall & Clark's Llapsttam's Eunice.
Another little cracker, but not giving her best today, B+T so pretty in head with a lovely neat shape to match, has lots to like, but would just like a bit more animation. Moves well in profile.
3. Potter's Toyswood Me Myself and I.
4. Martins Babette Of An Excellent Choice

5. Floyds Laurami Comfortably Numb

Y 9. (1 AB)

1. Spall & Clarks Llapsttam Sent From Heaven.
Ruby on top form today, shown in good coat and condition , so well balanced throughout, with good neck, shoulders, and carries herself so well on the move. Head is feminine with round dark eyes ,flat skull ,ear set well, which gives a soft gentle look, shown in good condition looked super moving around the ring and could not deny her the CC and BOS and RBIS was told it was her 2nd, sure her 3rd will not be too long coming .
2. Stanton's Verheyen Isabele At Cassandy.
Neat size well marked Blenheim with lots to like, pretty feminine head shape with plenty of fill in the muzzle, round dark eyes, super soft in expression .Presents a good outline standing and on the move, well presented coat and shown well.

SGB 2.

1. Homes Leogem Campanula.

Well broken blenheim, neat size with a super shape, everything just fits in to place, good front, short back, crested neck, good shoulders, and carries herself well on the move keeping a level top line and good tail carriage, coat was silky and well presented.

2. Robinsons Embeth Santa Maria Tusculana.

Another nice honest bitch, with lots to like, well marked coat of nice rich colour, little longer in back than 1, pleasing in head with large round dark eyes, moves out well.

SG BT/R 7.

1. Lee's Conchella Vivi Vevette By Kelrick.

Lovely little B/T, very pretty in head with plenty of fill, ears placed well, eyes were round and dark giving a soft gentle expression. Good overall size and balance, moving well in profile, super temperament with that none stop wagging tail. Shown in good coat and condition.

2. Kilcoyne & Halls Granasil Popsicle

Lovely head on this B/T, giving a soft gentle expression, eyes are good, good front with moderate neck. Moves well, just would like a little shorter in back. Nice overall type.

3. Tarabad's Frondil Dahlia Smith

4. Wilsons Cavalier Naomi Black Medgic

5. Bennett's Rishte I'm Tanisha of Remmya

PG 8 (1Ab)

1. Brymarden May blossom.

Well marked blenheim, lovely type with the prettiest of heads, eyes are good, expression is soft and gentle, looks a picture standing with her neat outline. Loved her size and overall balance. Just needs a tad more confidence on the move but thought her worthy of my final cut. Lots to like.

2. Nolan's Jernito Winter Hope

Liked the shape of this neat Blenheim, presents a good outline standing, well marked coat of good colour, head is pretty and feminine, moves well.

3. Bubb's Julchrisgor Marjory

1. Leaver's Revaelann Scrumptious.

Blenheim with a lovely rich coat colour of good texture, neat shape with a well balanced outline, pretty in head and eye, nice size with moderate bone. Moves well in profile keeping a good top line. Nice temperament.

2. Bloomfield's Toraylac Gracious Oaklake

Heavily marked tri colour with plenty of rich tan markings. Bigger framed than the winner and little longer in back. Head is pleasing with large dark eyes, showed well with a good temperament.

3. Whitfield's Bevelmount Chardonnay

L . 7 (2Ab)

1. Fox- Shone's Pamedna Tainted Love.

Loved this well marked Blenheim, the head for me is so pretty and correct, eyes are large and dark, expression is melting, on the table she is hard to fault, everything fits so well, and standing she presents a great picture, moves well, today just carrying her tail a little higher than I like but thought her very worthy to make my final cut, sure her day will come, loved her.

2. Jackson's Fortunamajor Shining Star.

Well broken blenheim who presents a nice outline standing, with her short back, good front and rear angles. Head shape is pretty with large dark eyes, moves well with a super happy temperament.

3. Galloway's Russmic Miss Liberty At Sailcross

4. Kilcoyne & Hall's Granasil Popsicle

5. Lee's Kelrick Kiss from a Rose

O 4. (3Ab)

1. Rix's Stavonga Sea Change At Ricksbury JW

Blenheim with a well marked coat which is of good colour, head shape is pleasing with large dark eyes and good ear placement and a well filled muzzle, giving a soft expression. Body is neat and balanced, moves well in profile keeping a level top line and good tail carriage. Presents a good outline standing, just lacking a bit of finish today but thought her worthy of my final cut.
